

Safety Plan

A safety plan is designed to guide you through a crisis. As you proceed through the steps, you can help yourself and feel safer. Keep your plan easily accessible in case you have thoughts of hurting yourself.

Step 1: My Warning Signs

A warning sign is something you think, feel, or do as suicidal thoughts are starting to develop

.....

Ask Yourself: How will you know when to use my safety plan?
Ask Yourself: What is happening when you start to experience suicidal thoughts or feel
Ask Yourself: How do you feel physically before you begin feeling suicidal or like harming yourself?

Step 2: My Coping Strategies

Coping strategies are things you can do on your own to help feel a little better in the moment

.....

Ask Yourself: What can you do, on your own to

Step 3: My Distractions

Distractions are people or places that may offer comfort in a time of distress

.....

Ask Yourself: Which people or places help you take your mind off your problems at least for a little while?
Ask Yourself: Who helps you feel better when you socialize with them?
It is not necessary to tell the people on this list what you are going through or feeling.

Step 4: My Supports

Supports are people you feel comfortable talking to about what you're going through, and who can provide some help.

Name .....	Contact Info .....

Who do you feel you can talk to about what you're experiencing and who will be supportive?
Among your family or friends, who do you think you could contact for help during a crisis?
Listing multiple people can help if one contact is unreachable. Prioritize the list. In this step, unlike the previous step, you reveal to others that you

Step 5: Professional Supports

Professional contacts are people who can provide professional care and support

Ask Yourself: Who are the mental health professionals you feel belong on your safety plan?

List other contacts, such as urgent care, mobile crisis team, mental health clinic, or a crisis

Step 6: My Safe Environment

In this step, evaluate means that could be considered during a suicidal crisis and how to clear them from your environment.

Do you own a firearm, such as a gun or rifle?

What other items do you have access to and may use to attempt to kill or harm yourself?

What would make it harder for you to access
